

Angello Development Foundation Ltd

Manley House, 56 Newforge Lane, Belfast, BT9 5NW

Tel: +44 28 9038 0152

Fax: +44 28 9038 0158

www.angello.com

Directors

Malcolm Johnston – Founder Director // Executive Director, ADF

Malcolm was formerly CEO and then Chairman of Johnston Campbell Ltd. –a specialist financial planning and investment management business. The business manages investment funds of over £300m for high net worth clients. Malcolm has been in the investment industry for over 25 years, consulting with an investment management business in Singapore and establishing a pioneering investment project in Moldova. In parallel, Malcolm has also worked across Eastern Europe for over 17 years, pioneering and establishing business, social and charitable projects managed by local people in Ukraine, Moldova, Russia, Belarus and Armenia.

He has held the role of Regional Director for Eastern Europe with a multinational youth charity and has travelled extensively in the region.

Ian MacCorkell – Founder Director // Director, ADF

Ian is a Commercial Lawyer and founder of the niche legal practice of MacCorkell Legal & Commercial (MLC). He is also a founding Partner in Angello. A graduate of Queens University Belfast, he qualified as a Solicitor in 1987. He founded MLC in 2002. The firm has been involved in many major property transactions within Northern Ireland, UK and Europe and acts for a diverse commercial and private client base. He has been involved in strategic development projects nationally and internationally. His particular interest is to use business skill to impact poverty in developing nations. Ian advises on legal, business and enterprise issues and is involved in business development and leadership training in Northern Ireland, Kosovo and Moldova.

In recognition of this work MLC was presented with the Law Society of Northern Ireland's 2009 award for Excellence in International pro bono work. Since 2005 Ian has visited Kosovo several times each year. He has assisted in the establishment of small businesses and worked alongside EU, the Investment Promotion Agency and Ministry of Trade and Industry in Kosovo from 2006 and UNDP from 2008 in seeking to bring inward investment and internal enterprise development. Ian acts as an Investment Promotion facilitator as required.

Angello Development Foundation Ltd

Manley House, 56 Newforge Lane, Belfast, BT9 5NW

Tel: +44 28 9038 0152

Fax: +44 28 9038 0158

www.angelo.com

Richard Irwin – Founder Director // Director, ADF

Richard is Chief Financial Officer of Blackpearl Property, a property development company based in Romania and Northern Ireland. He is a founding Partner in Angello. Richard qualified as a Chartered Accountant with Pricewaterhouse LLP prior to joining Schroders, where he held management roles specialising in the structuring and establishment of Investment Funds. He worked in Luxembourg, Hong Kong, New York and London before returning to PricewaterhouseCoopers LLP where he was Director of the Northern Ireland Property Team. He has been involved in Romania for ten years and has secured significant debt and equity investment in this market. Richard is also Trustee of an international children's charity, which works with over 3,500 children in homes, schools and care centres in 11 of the world's poorest countries -Ethiopia, Kenya, Burma, India, Guatemala, Dominican Republic, Romania, Moldova, Lebanon, Columbia & Peru.

Support Team

Jim Wright

Jim has had various executive roles in blue chip companies. He runs his own consultancy business, and has been involved in leadership development and impact investing in former soviet companies since 2006.

Patrick McDonald

Patrick is a serial social entrepreneur. With an MBA from Oxford University's Saïd Business School, he specializes in the analysis of social problems leading to the design, development and delivery of commensurate solutions.

So far this has led to the development of Viva (www.viva.org). Viva is now a global children's charity with a unique and admired approach to mobilizing and equipping churches to help children at risk. Viva today serves just over 4,000 churches that reach over one hundred thousand children. Patrick was named one of the world's twenty most influential child activists in 2010 by 'Children's Ministry Magazine'.

Angello Development Foundation Ltd

Manley House, 56 Newforge Lane, Belfast, BT9 5NW

Tel: +44 28 9038 0152

Fax: +44 28 9038 0158

www.angelo.com

John Heaslip

Angello Corporate Responsibility Advisor

John is the former CEO of Business in the Community NI, (BITC). He retired in May 2013. John has significant business experience particularly in retail and distribution. In the early 1980s as MD of Coogan and Watts Ltd, he led a dramatic growth program that resulted in the company being sold in 1986.

BITC is a not-for-profit coalition of over 250 companies committed to responsible business. As such, BITC has been at the heart of creating innovative programs to tackle youth unemployment.

John has been awarded the USIA Fellowship to study entrepreneurship and CSR in the US and has lectured on various MBA programs at Ashridge Management College, Queens University and University of Ulster.

Paul Gilmore

Paul has skills gained from 14 years management in the retail/distribution business coupled with over 11 years' experience in the charitable sector. He was part of the E Europe leadership team of a youth charity and is cofounder of a project in Moldova that enables teenage girls to get an education and skills to make them employable. He is also Operations Manager for a week-long event that attracts 5000 people daily